There was a very good response to the recent circular and virtually everyone was in favour of staying at the RAF Club, maintaining the "Free Bar" and increasing the price to £48 plus an additional £2 for cheese. Indeed many of the responses said "bite the bullet" and go straight to £50. We have decided to have a basic cost of £48 but will probably need to review annually. The increased price will take effect from this December.

Date: Wednesday December 14th 2011
Time: Aperitifs from 12 noon sit down at 12.45 pm
